

Dee Wallace Perpetual Award for Excellence by a Landcare Group

---

NOMINEES

Linden Lagoon

The Linden Lagoon Group has had a significant positive impact on a very degraded site in a very short period of time. The group has removed entrenched weed species, piles of litter and debris, and planted a significant number of trees. The result of their hard word work is a noticeable improvement in the quality of the water catchment and the re-establishment of biodiversity and habitat. The enthusiasm and commitment of this dedicated group of individuals is led by a passionate and committed Liz Philpott and husband Keith.

Sawtell Dunecare

Sawtell Dunecare is being recognised for their ongoing dedication and commitment to the rehabilitation of their local coastline, with their site now extending to incorporate Boambee Headland. The group is knowledgeable, friendly, hard working, diligent, and caring. Over the years, they have achieved great success in the removal of mature weeds such as balloon cotton seed, mother of millions and bitou bush. Now consisting of 25 members, they are a passionate group whom are only too willing to share their knowledge to both improve other member's skills and improve site work practices.

EILEEN MOODY MEMORIAL AWARD For the outstanding efforts of an individual Landcarer

Fiona Kealy, CHRL Community Nursery

Fiona is responsible for creating a stand out computer record keeping system that has streamlined the documentation of nursery activities and can be easily used to search for specific records for reporting. It includes all propagation and seedbank information. This record keeping system is a very valuable addition to the ongoing improvement of the nursery. Fiona is a highly valued member of the nursery, contributing many hours to the nursery's success.

Jean Meiklejohn, Jetty Dunecare

Jean has been an active member of Jetty Dune Care for many years while frequently working at other sites as well. Jean has shown a great aptitude and commitment to the work over many years and has become a great ambassador for Landcare. She is living proof of the benefits of Landcare to ones health and well being, as well as to our community and natural environment.

Tim Morrison, Friends of Coffs Creek

Tim is a quiet achiever. He does not spend time talking, instead he uses his time to maximum effect. A dedicated member of FOCC for over 9 years, Tim regularly contributes 15 hours per week. He is very careful with handweeding and spraying and transports very large rubbish from the site. He is a valued member of the group, deserving of recognition for his quiet achievements.
